

General Fund
Long-Term Financial Forecast (2012 – 2016)

The economic outlook for governments was gathered primarily from Moody’s Analytics (Moody’s) and the Congressional Budget Office (CBO). Moody’s and the CBO base their outlook on a variety of information sources, including the Department of Commerce, the Bureau of Economic Analysis, the Department of Labor, the Bureau of Labor Statistics and the Federal Reserve Board.

The primary inflationary assumptions utilized in the long-term forecast are the Consumer Price Index (CPI), Core CPI, and the Employment Cost Index (ECI). The estimates included in the forecast are:

	CPI	Core CPI	ECI
2014	2.7%	1.8%	3.0%
2015	2.7%	1.9%	3.2%
2016	2.6%	2.1%	3.3%

Revenues

The forecast base is the 2013 approved budget amount. Revenues are inflated for the 2014 – 2016 period based on the revenue source. The base assumptions for the revenue forecast are:

- Sales Tax – 2.5% increase in 2014 and 2.9% increase in 2015, and 2.25% in 2016 (one-half of the expected increase in retail sales within Franklin County; Source: Moody’s)

- Licenses and Permits, Assessment Fees, Fines and Forfeitures, Intergovernmental Revenue, Investment Earnings, Other Financing Sources – No growth

Expenditures

The forecast base is the 2013 approved budget amount less 2.8%, which is based on the average percentage of lapsed appropriations during the previous five years (2008 - 2012). Expenditures are inflated based on the type of expenditure. If significant non-recurring expenditures were included in the 2013 approved budget, the amounts for 2014 - 2016 were adjusted to reflect the reduction. Likewise, the amounts for 2014 – 2016 include significant items based on contractual obligations that are not reflected in the 2013 approved budget. The base assumptions for the expenditure forecast are:

- Personnel Expenses – ECI
- Health Care Expenses and Employee Contribution – 8.0% annual increase
- Utilities – 0.4% increase in 2014, 0.5% increase in 2015, and 5.1% increase in 2016 (Source: EIA)
